A Message From Rev. Dr. Timothy W. Ehrlich

Dear Congregation and Friends of Oakhurst UMC,

It truly was my pleasure to serve as your senior pastor for 16 years. For the last year it has been my wonderful privilege to enjoy retirement and I am deeply grateful for the opportunity and everyday is Saturday to us, except Sunday which is still Sunday. People have asked if we have traveled but issues with the health of my youngest son have prevented Anna and me from traveling as we hoped to, but we have still managed some short getaways

The United Methodist Church requests that when a pastor retires from serving a church and intends to continue to live in that community and attend that church that he or she should take a full year away from attending or participating in that church because they want the new pastor to have the full opportunity to be seen as the senior pastor. I have done that and even more, with the exception that I did attend two funerals of people I was close to who passed away. Other than that I have not participated in any way, other than watching the services on the internet and keeping up with my weekly offerings electronically.

Now that the year is up Anna and I would like to start attending Oakhurst again. To be clear, I am not returning as a pastor let alone as your pastor. In fact I no longer consider myself a pastor because to me a pastor is one who takes care of a congregation and I no longer do. I am still a Rev. and a Dr. but not a pastor, Nathan and Phil are the pastors.

Anna and I were super involved as Pastor and Pastor's wife; we both gave generously above and beyond of our time and money to Oakhurst. Now I am heavily involved in serving God through writing my books and politics; Anna is heavily involved in caring for our son and my mom and her own health and well being. Our intention in coming back to Oakhurst is to be like the 80% who attend, give money and participate in and help out at special events like picnics, dinner, musicals etc.

In His Joy, Rev. Dr. Timothy Ehrlich

We look forward to seeing Tim and Anna at Church and participating in events again.
