Food Scarcity Continues in Summer Months

The OUMC Missions Committee continues to hold food drives throughout the summer every third Saturday of each month. Our food drive supports the Interfaith Food Pantry at Aldersgate UMC and the food pantry at Good Samaritan Presbyterian Church as well as individuals who drop by for a bag of much needed groceries. The Interfaith Food Pantry at Aldersgate UMC continues to have a deficit in both financial and food donations.

In summer months, the need for food does not go down, in fact it normally goes up due to children being off from school! In the month of May, Aldersgate Food Pantry received $1,487.00 in donations and $4,532.43 was spent! These figures encompass the purchase of a refrigerator as well as the donations made to pay for it. Last month the pantry served 345 families representing 871 individuals (601 adults and 270 children). We encourage those who are able, to support the food drive with needed food supplies and /or give monetary donations at Oakhurst UMC designated for the food drive.

Thank you for your generosity and compassion.
